PREREQUISITES	To distinguish the works of art. Recognize techniques. Knowledge of the history of the cultural phenomena of the medieval and modern age.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	Knowledge and understanding The course is structured so that the student, after completing their studies, demonstrate competency of both historical, methodological, for the purpose of research and interpretation of artistic production in Italy in the medieval and modern age. Applying knowledge and understanding Students, at the end of the course, they should possess the ability to apply their knowledge to understanding and skills in solving problems related to the reading and interpretation of works of art produced in Italy from the ninth to the eighteenth century. These skills are developed through seminars, personal study, lectures and guided tours. Making judgments It is hoped the ability of the student, at the end of the course of study, to integrate knowledge in order to inform judgments that, in addition to reflection on the proposed artistic themes, can also arise in the context of geographical and chronological iconographic themes relevant to the matter. Communication skills The student, at the end of the course, will have to prove to communicate clearly and unambiguously conclusions reached, with the correct verbal description of a work of art, the cultural milieu and the reasons underpinning these such as the client or the iconological interpretation, to specialists in art-historical context and not specialists, thus being able to move from one communicative register, verbal or written, to another. Learning ability Training during the course will not be considered the point of arrival, but only the set of tools and information that will enable further studies in the field in a personal and independent. Therefore, the student at the end of the course must be able to independently conduct an original scientific research, identifying the primary and secondary sources, knowing how to use the correct cognition and after the proper weight of each.
ASSESSMENT METHODS	During the course of lectures a useful self-assessment tool for students, aimed at awareness of the knowledge acquired, it will be represented by the Test in progress, proposed at an experimental level, which will not be taken into account in the final evaluation. Self-assessment to check in the know-how, or the application of knowledge gained, will see the creation of a short essay with a description of a work of art. The short text consisting in the application of aspects of the discipline, such as the iconographic recognition and reading of the stylistic code. The methodology of short text processing will be discussed in the lectures will be held at the end of the same lessons and will be subject to final evaluation. The final exam will be oral and will consist of an interview in which the candidate must answer at least three questions, in order to check that you have skills and disciplinary knowledge provided by the course; the assessment will be expressed in thirtieths. The overall final assessment at the oral examination will be obtained from the analysis of the following indicators: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Fairness and properties in the use of technical language related to discipline (up to 10/30)- The required knowledge correct and complete exposure (up to 10/30)- Contextualization and reading iconographic work of art (up to 10/30).
