EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	The course's aim is to offer an overview on the main contemporary political philosophical issues. The 1st module will analyse the main authors and the leading political-philosophical approaches and a in-depth analysis of Neoliberalism paradigm will be developed. The second module will focus instead onto the issues of language and rationality. Therefore, students will be assessed in their analysis of communicative, dialogical and conflicting codes in the real politics. Finally, it will be discussed the link between liberty and responsibility through the reading of J. P. Sartre's text.
