PREREQUISITES	Spatio-temporal orientation in the context of the contemporary ages.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	Knowledge and understanding: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- knowledge of main schools of contemporary philosophical thought ;- applying knowledge and understanding;- analysis, synthesis and argumentation;- critical and connection abilities, referring to the different topics. Making judgements: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- capacity to organizing data diachronically, of personal evaluation and synchronical utilization of achieved expertises, referring to sociological, ethical and existential fields. Communication: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Communication of knowledge in an appropriate and clear language. Lifelong learning skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- achieving of a rational learning method, to continue studying autonomously and consciously.
ASSESSMENT METHODS	Oral exam will consist in a discussion of the topics of the course. The vote will be expressed in thirtieth and may be validated during the official examination period. Oral exam aims to assess the acquisition of abilities and knowledge, concerning the topics of the course. The candidate will have to answer to at least two or three questions posed orally, on all parts of the program, referring to recommended texts. Final assessment aims to evaluate whether the student has knowledge and understanding of the topics. The pass mark will be reached when the student shows knowledge and understanding of the subjects at least in general terms; furthermore, the student will also have to show presentation and argumentative skills as to allow the transmission of his/her knowledge to the examiner. Below this threshold, the examination will be insufficient. The more, however, the student will be able to find own connections between the topics of the course and be able to go into details on the subject of discipline, the more the assessment is positive.
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	The course aims to achieve the knowledge of the main schools of contemporary philosophical thought; to develop reasoning and research abilities and expertises, paying particular attention to philosophical speech; to increase expression and communication abilities and critical attitude.
TEACHING METHODS	Lessons supported by conceptual maps or slides, in order to facilitate the comprehension of texts.
