PREREQUISITES	The discipline requires a basic knowledge of the History of Philosophy, of some fundamental philosophical concepts of ontological and gnoseological character and of some metaphysical notions (being, first principle, substance), which the students have already acquired through the first cycle degree in Philosophy.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	ECTS credits for the course are awarded to students who have developed in an at least basic way the following skills referring to Dublin Descriptors: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Knowledge and understanding: the student owns the specific disciplinary knowledge and from a methodological point of view he/she shows to be able to understand in a conscious way the philosophical nature of the reflection on religion, faith, worship as present in the suggested bibliography; 2) Applying knowledge and understanding: the student is able to apply his/her knowledge and is able to use his/her critical understanding skill in relation to still now open theoretical questions, or in relation to for him/her not familiar problems or to interdisciplinary problems; 3) Making judgements: on the basis of his/her knowledge the student is able to express in an autonomous way judgments and valuations which are supported by a coherent and plausible argumentation and which concern specific questions of the philosophy of religions; 4) Communication: the student is able to communicate in a clear and organic way and through the specific terminology the meaning of the ontological, gnoseological and ethical problems which pertain to the philosophy of religions and which emerge from the suggested bibliography; he/she is also able to elaborate and communicate in a clear way the same topics to a non-scholarly audience, stimulating its critical attention on those topics; 5) Learning skills: the student is able to use a productive method in order to extend his/her knowledge in an autonomous way, finding in his/her research the most useful instruments and being able to coordinate in an organic and interdisciplinary way all that he/she has already learned for improving the specific disciplinary knowledge as well as his/her global philosophical and scientific knowledge as humanist.
ASSESSMENT METHODS	The final evaluation consists in an oral discussion which aims at testing the student's possessing of disciplinary skills and knowledge according to the topic of the course of lectures and the suggested bibliography. Final pass marks go from 18 to 30 points cum laude. The student will begin presenting a theme or question concerning the topic of lectures which he /she freely chooses. Subsequently the head professor will ask at least two-three questions in order to test the knowledge acquired by the student on the topic of the course of lectures referring to the suggested books. Thereby the head professor will verify the student's level of achieving of the following goals: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) the student has acquired the specific disciplinary knowledge and shows his/her awareness of the role of philosophical reflection on "religion", "faith", "sacred", "divine", "worship", also referring to Florenskij's position which is the topic of the lectures; 2) the student has understood the general topic of the course of lectures as well as the questions concerning the relationship between reason and faith; 3) the student is able to work out in an autonomous way the topical problems of the course of lectures and he/she is able also to present the aporetical traits emerging from the proposed topics during the lectures; 4) the student is able to expose in a clear and organic way and through the specific terminology arguments, topics, problems of the discipline as well as parts of the suggested bibliography; 5) the student is able to formulate his/her own opinion or judgment and to support an interpretive thesis in a satisfactory way and if necessary he/she is able to give an original plausible interpretation of the topics and questions he/she has affronted on the basis of the suggested bibliography referring also to the problems posed by the topic of the lectures. The head professor will express the evaluation referring to the student's achievement of the five above mentioned goals in the following way: 30- 30 cum laude: the five above mentioned goals have been reached in an optimal way 29-27: the five above mentioned goals have been reached in a plenty satisfactory way 26-24: the five above mentioned goals have been reached in a quite satisfactory way 23-21: the five above mentioned goals have been reached in a sufficient way 20-18: the five above mentioned goals have been reached in an elementary and limited way The students who have not the possibility to attend the lectures are requested to contact the head professor for the texts and the topics which will be discussed during the final evaluation. Referring to the agreement, the above mentioned criteria will be followed by the head professor.
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	The educational goals follow those of the second cycle degree in "Scienze filosofiche e storiche". The course of lectures has as its goal to provide for the students methods and instruments which help them to complete their educational path through a sharpening of their own knowledge in the specific field of the philosophy of religions and, more generally, of the scientific sector to which the discipline pertains (M-FIL/01). Therefore, the course aims at the development of the students' capacity of critical orientation as concerns the main topics of the discipline - at first that concerning the divine and the human experience of it - through an increase of the following capacities: capacity of reading and understanding texts; capacity of arguing and communicating knowledge and theses; capacity of using in a rigorous way the method of the formal reasoning; capacity of increasing the store of knowledge as concerns the discipline using also knowledge acquired through other disciplines; capacity of using the bibliographical instruments; capacity of recognizing in a critical way the conceptual and the historical structures of the discipline; capacity of applying knowledge concerning the historical-philosophical tradition in order to inquire the problems which are relevant for the discipline; capacity of creating relationships between already acquired knowledge and the main topics of the contemporary debate in order to formulate mature evaluations according to the level which is expected by the "Corso di Studi in Scienze filosofiche".
