10	the fundamentals of tourism marketing. Introduction to concepts and principles such as market segmentation, targeting and positioning, the marketing mix, and marketing planning are used to successfully market tourism products and services
10	Lectures/Discussions will be used to present the concepts and tools that provide the basis for sound marketing plans. Each lecture will be structured around a particular component of the Hospitality Marketing Mix. All relevant tourism marketing activities will be covered during the seminar. Providing access to frameworks will prepare the ground for students to understand the core concepts they are expected to apply to a case studies and to their individual marketing plan (assignments)
16	Case Studies will provide opportunities for students to apply concepts and methods discussed in lectures to "real" marketing problems. Students are required to review and understand the case situation before class discussion, to come to class prepared, and to actively contribute to case discussion.
