PREREQUISITES	Students are expected to have basic knowledge in the fields of ancient, medieval, modern and contemporary art history, and of conservation history. In case the student is lacking elementary knowledge in these areas, the teacher will indicate integrative readings that can supplement and facilitate the achievement of the course's didactic goals.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITY OF COMPREHENSION  The goal of the course is to provide students with basic concepts of art-historical research in order to place Cultural Heritage objects in a suitable art-historical and cultural context. CAPACITY TO APPLY KNOWLEDGE AND COMPREHENSION  Ability in the use of the most common iconographical and bibliographical resources in order to enhance the art-historical, cultural and anthropological understanding of artefacts. MAKING JUDGMENTS  Ability in the choice of a suitable methodological approach to define the cultural value of an object. MAKING JUDGMENTS  Being able to explain the basic concepts of art historical methodology with the current technical terms. LEARNING CAPACITY  Being able to explore topics through specific scientific articles of the matter and to follow seminars and insights as part of the art-historical research.
ASSESSMENT METHODS	The evaluation of student learning requires the possession of the skills and knowledge of the subject matter of the course as well as the ability to apply them to historical understanding of Cultural Heritage. In addition, it verifies the possession of property of scientific language and of exposure capacity. The student assessment is performed through a skill prove (classroom discussion of a detailed critical reading assigned by the course teacher) and an oral examination. The evaluation of each test ranks between 18 and 30 cum laude. Therefore, the final evaluation of the overall course is composed by the skill prove's evaluation (25 %) and the oral exam's evaluation (75 %). The student will pass the examination if he/she has at least the score of 18/30 in each test. Different ranking of final evaluation will be done as detailed in the following: 1) Basic knowledge of topics and limited capacity of processing knowledge and of correlation among the various topics for application to the issues of Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage. Sufficient capacity analysis of the proposed phenomena. Sufficient judgment ability and exposure of the pursued procedure (rating 18-21). 2) Rather good knowledge of topics and good capacity of processing knowledge and of correlation among the various topics for application to the issues of Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage. Rather good capacity of analysis of the proposed phenomena. Rather good judgment ability and exposure of the pursued procedure (rating 22-24). 3) Good knowledge of topics and ability in processing knowledge and of correlation among the various topics for application to Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage. Good capacity of analysis of the proposed phenomena. Good judgment ability and exposure of the pursued procedure (rating 25-27). 4) Excellent knowledge of the topics, excellent and prompt capacity of knowledge processing and of correlation among the various topics for application to the issues of Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage even to contexts different from those proper of the course. Very good capacity of analysis of the proposed phenomena. Very good judgement ability and exposure of the pursued procedure (rating 28-30). 5) Excellent knowledge of the topics, excellent and very smart capacity of processing and of correlation among the various topics for application to the issues for Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Heritage even to contexts different from those proper of the course. Excellent capacity of analysis of the presented phenomena. Excellent judgement ability and exposure of the pursued procedure (rating 30 cum laude).
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	The aim of the course is to provide a basic knowledge of the principal methodological tools indispensable to any operator of the Cultural Heritage when it is necessary to give an appropriate historical-artistic placement of an object. Specifically, the module aims at integrating technical-scientific knowledge with historical-artistic skills that help to understand the contextual meaning of Cultural Heritage. This kind of competence is an indispensable prerequisite for the proper use of Cultural Heritage.
TEACHING METHODS	The course is semestral and it will be held during the first semester of the fifth year. The teachings are almost exclusively frontal lectures, field trips are also scheduled.
