PREREQUISITES	Written eligibility (Open Badge) for the oral exam to be acquired at the CLA (Centro Linguistico di Ateneo), Level A2.
LEARNING OUTCOMES	Knowledge and understanding Knowledge of the contents and basic methodological principles relating to the two parts of the course. Ability to apply knowledge and understanding The student will have to show that he is using the metalanguage necessary for the study of the problems faced during the course with mastery. Autonomy of judgment The student must be able to independently analyze the methods and problems faced during the course. Communication skills Acquisition of lexical, grammatical and morphosyntactic skills necessary to improve linguistic-expressive skills in French, both in oral and written production (level B1) Learning skills The student will have to improve, independently, the general language skills useful for the analysis and presentation in French of the acquired contents (level B1)
ASSESSMENT METHODS	Oral exam. The teacher can replace the oral test with a multiple choice written test (15 questions related to the program carried out).
EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES	The political discourse and the media construction of Islamophobia in France The course will be dedicated to the study and analysis of communication devices and discursive strategies of persuasion implemented by political discourse. The privileged sphere of application will be reserved for the strategies of media construction of the "Muslim problem" in France. The linguistic objective is to achieve level B1 of the European reference framework. The student must be ready to face a situation in a Francophone context and to read and understand the reference texts in French. As regards the contents, the student should be able to recognize and analyze the rhetorical-argumentative strategies of political discourse and the linguistic-ideological architecture of the Muslim problem in France.
TEACHING METHODS	Frontal lessons. French linguistic training (Open Badge, level A2) at the CLA (Centro Linguistico di Ateneo)
